Dear Shareholders,

The Directors of the Bank have great pleasure in presenting the 18th Annual Report on the business and operations of the Bank along with the audited accounts for the year ended March 31, 2017.

Economic Growth

The macroeconomic stability has improved substantially with the continuance of fiscal prudence, lower inflation, lower current account deficit, and robust foreign exchange reserves. The Economic Survey forecasts a growth rate of 6.75 to 7.5 percent for FY18, as compared to the expected growth rate of 6.5 percent in FY17. Over the medium run, the implementation of the Goods and Services Tax (GST), follow-up to demonetization, and enacting other structural reforms should take the economy towards its potential real GDP growth of 8 percent to 10 percent.

- GDP growth expected to be between 6.75 and 7.50 percent in 2017-18.
- Real GDP growth expected at 6.5 percent in 2016-17
- GVA growth at basic prices 7.0 percent in 2016-17
- Growth rate of industrial sector is estimated to moderate to 5.2 percent in 2016-17 from 7.4 percent last fiscal.
- Many new initiatives taken by the Government in the form of Make-in-India, Invest India, Start Up India and e-biz Mission Mode Project under the national e-governance plan are facilitating investment and ease of doing business in the country.

Demonetization in India

Demonetization is a generation's memorable experience and is going to be one of the economic events of our time. Its impact is felt by every Indian citizen. Demonetization affects the economy through the liquidity side. Its effect will be a telling one because nearly 86% of currency value in circulation was withdrawn without replacing bulk of it.

The Prime Minister announced Demonetization on November 8, 2016 which was aimed at addressing corruption, black money, counterfeit currency and terror financing. The decision was guided by the aim of reaping its enormous potential medium-term benefits in the form of reduced corruption, greater digitization of the economy, increased flow of financial savings and greater formalization of the economy. All of these would lead to higher GDP growth and tax revenues that could be used by the Government for inclusive and stronger economic growth within the norms of fiscal prudence, besides contributing to overall improvement in business environment.

Although demonetization holds huge potential benefits in the medium to long-term, given the scale of operation, it was expected to cause transient disruption in economic activity. India has traditionally been a cash intensive economy. According to an estimate, about 78 percent of all consumer payments in India are effected in cash. It was, therefore, obvious that currency squeeze during the demonetization period would have had some adverse impact on economic activity, although such impact was expected to be transient. Demonetization has impacted various sectors of the economy in varying degrees; however, in the affected sectors, the adverse impact was transient and felt mainly in November and December 2016. The impact moderated significantly in January 2017 and dissipated by and large by mid-February, reflecting the fast pace of remonetization. As the impact of the liquidity shock is assessed to largely dissipate by mid-February, growth is estimated to bounce back in 2017-18. With rapid remonetization, pent up demand was likely to boost consumption demand.

Demonetization as a cleaning exercise may produce several good things in the economy. At the same time, it creates unavoidable income and welfare losses to the poor sections of the society who get income based on their daily work and those who don't have the digital transaction culture. Overall economic activities have been dampened in the short term. But the immeasurable benefits of having more transparency and reduced volume of black money activities can be pointed as long term benefits.

Overall, demonetization has had some negative macroeconomic impact, which, however, has been transient as remonetization has moved at an accelerated pace in last twelve weeks. More importantly, demonetization is expected to have a positive impact over the medium to long-term. In particular, there is expected to be greater formalization of the economy with increased use of digital payments. The reduced use of cash will also lead to greater intermediation by the formal financial sector of the economy, which should, inter alia, help improve monetary transmission. The impact of demonetization on the real economy has been transient. Demonetization has impacted various sectors of the economy; however, the adverse impact, in general, was short-lived as it was felt mainly in November and December 2016. The impact moderated significantly in January and dissipated by and large by mid-February 2017, reflecting an accelerated pace of remonetization.

As per World Bank, demonetization will have positive impact on Indian economy. Prime Minister Narendra Modi's decision to ban high-value banknotes as part of efforts to stamp out corruption will have a profound and positive impact on India's economy. Demonetization may have caused some hardship to people living in the cash economy but in the long run the move will help foster a clean and digitized economy.

The year gone by has been very eventful for the whole of the banking industry and a remarkable one for your Bank. The Bank got converted into Capital Small Finance Bank on April 24, 2016. The name of the Bank has been included in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 vide Notification DBR.PSBD.No.5201/16.02.001/2016-17 dated November 8, 2016, and published in the Gazette of India (Part III - Section 4) dated February 4- February 10, 2017. There has been capital infusion in the bank through private placement to the tune of ₹ 64.67 crores by three institutional investors. This has provided a big boost to CRAR which has jumped from 17.20% as on March 31, 2016 to 22.95% as on March 31, 2017. The primary features of financial performance of the bank are:

1. There has been overall growth of the bank in various segments. The deposits and investments have risen handsomely 30% plus year-on-year which is due to geographical expansion as well as enhanced penetration with in the existing area of operations by the bank.
2. There has been a handsome increase of 38.90% YOY in non interest income depicting the wide range of earning avenues and well established business model which is beyond the dynamics of market forces and interest rate cycle. There has been decent increase in net interest income on 18.11% YOY.
3. The Demonetization has impacted overall economy which is far less evident in the performance of the bank yet the advances profile could not stay completely unphased by such a move. The advances portfolio got multiple hits including (i) there has been general slowdown in the economy during the third quarter which did not let our loan book grow as expected, (ii) there has been reduction in previous advance book as many businesses specially small, marginal and medium enterprises could not grow their order book on expected lines so they reduced their loan and (iii) the quality of assets too got somewhat deteriorated due to demonetization however the bank fared very well and maintains a very healthy asset quality.
4. The Demonetization, although had a negative impact on loan book, but it helped in accumulation of CASA which has specially grown exponentially in second half of the year as depicted by the numbers. The good part of the enhancement of CASA is that the bank has been able to retain most of it which shall boost the numbers going forward as well as help reduce interest rates faster to augment advances at fast pace.

5. The overall numbers on profit and profitability look slightly below expectations which needs to be drilled down to know the exact reasons which are: (i) The Bank has entered accelerated expansion plan and there has been substantial branch expansion, and that too, the majority of branch expansion taking place during second half of the year, amounting to more overhead and less revenue from those new branches. (ii) There has been substantial increase in Human Resource costs which, although is a positive sign for better team, but still is cost at the exchequer. (iii) The not up to the mark expansion of loan book has cost somewhat to the bottom line.

Way Forward as Small Finance Bank

Immense opportunities present themselves some as low hanging fruits and some as aims to explore at. The conversion of the Bank into Capital Small Finance Bank is a milestone, which is going to open the door for thousands of milestones to come and performance peaks to conquer. The Bank has witnessed 55% growth in number of branches in its first year of operations as a Small Finance Bank. Your Bank being the only bank is given Small Finance Bank license, other entities coming from non banking fields, has put your Bank at the centre stage on Indian small and mid size banking industry. Your Bank is being able to attract and build book at industry competitive rates and terms, unlike its, other small bank peers, who offer highly lucrative and less remunerative terms to attract clientele. The brand loyalty created by your bank, thanks to a decade and half long, relationship with various stakeholders, built on trust and performance, is allowing the bank to reap its benefits as well as build on its brand in new territories.

To name a few of the golden opportunities in front of the bank are:

- To venture into newer markets, geographies, and instruments presents immense opportunity to explore its strengths to the fullest as well as reap the benefits of economies of scale which shall help in improving profit and profitability as well as improve on operating ratios.
- The scheduling of the bank, getting authorized dealer-II license, MOU with SIDBI for refinance and collaborative financing to MSME are going to strengthen the standing of the bank in multiple ways such as entering into unchartered territory of government businesses, providing newer and advanced product line as an AD-II bank, and targeting more and bigger MSME, which is going to reflect in exponential growth of the bank.
- The experience of more than a decade and a half's performance, gives the bank outright bargaining power as well as expertise, which no one in the small finance bank fraternity has, to come up winner and out grow its competitors in overall performance and standing.
- The Bank has the opportunity to expand its business PAN India without any geographical limitations, which in itself is an unlimited opportunity to grow. The Bank has golden era ahead of it in terms of business and outreach.
- The road map of the bank to cover whole of the North India by having well knit network of 220 branches and business of ₹12,000 crores by FY 2021 shall put it as a regional bank in the next five years.
- Not resting here, the Bank has the opportunity to become a universal bank, after five years of performance, post conversion into Capital Small Finance Bank, subject to Reserve Bank of India's approval.
- The Bank has established a culture of happy stakeholders and with the financial success lying ahead, the bank has the opportunity to generate employment on even large scale and discharge its corporate social responsibility in larger geography with larger funds and bringing more to the society at large.

Dividend

The Bank has a proud history of being investor friendly bank and healthy dividend payout. The Bank has over the years been consistently performing very well and paying dividends. The performance of the bank during the FY 2016-17 has been exceptionally good as well. Post conversion into Capital Small Finance Bank, the Bank is in a once in a lifetime growth phase, where the opportunity to grow is unlimited. As we know, banking is a capital intensive industry, and to grow at an accelerated pace, there is need for capital/funds. You shall be proud to note that the bank has increased its branch network from 47 as on March 31, 2016 to 73 as on March 31, 2017 depicting a mammoth 55% increase in branch network. The Bank has aggressive plans to expand exponentially during FY 2017-18 as well. Such an accelerated growth does not warrant high dividend payouts, which can otherwise cause unnecessary pressure of operating ratios and can cause slowdown in fast paced growth. Thus, taking a prudent decision, the bank has decided to plough back profits to invest in its exponential expansion for generating more shareholders' value. The Board has proposed to reduced dividend from 16% to 8% for the financial year ended March 31, 2017. The Bank believes in maintaining highest standards of professionalism and works in the best interest of all of its stakeholders. Going forward, the shareholders shall reap rich value of fast paced growth and expansion.

Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR)

The Bank in compliance to the provisions of the guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of India has maintained the capital adequacy ratio at the desired level. The CAR for the financial year ending March 31, 2017 is 22.95% as compared to 17.20% during the financial year ending March 31, 2016. This increase has taken place due to the increase in the investments in the Equity Shares of the Company by the Institutional Investors during the year.

Treasury yield: The Bank has made handsome profits on treasury holdings of SLR and Non SLR securities given the sharp rise in NDTL. The Banks were left with no other option to buy government securities to meet SLR requirements. The Bank is specifically positioned to capitalize on this opportunity with huge investments in SLR portfolio having huge unrealized profits.

Higher Deposits -> More NDTL -> Higher SLR Buying -> Lower Bonds Yield.

5. Reasons for not spending the 2% of average net profit of last three financial years:

As an integral part of society, the Bank is aware of its corporate social responsibilities and has engaged in various programmes. For this purpose Bank has set-up a Trust- Capital Foundation which is in the process of Registration. The Bank will be contributing profits to the Foundation. For your Bank, it is of paramount importance that the funds of the bank are utilized prudently to ensure maximum social benefit and development. So the initial time was taken to put in place processes, evaluate various projects and their execution timelines. Therefore some social projects have been undertaken by the Bank and some CSR projects were in the pipeline in the last financial year. However as the ground work has been done, the Bank is positive that the execution of the other projects will begin in this financial year.

6. Responsibility statement of the CSR Committee:

The CSR Committee confirms that the implementation and monitoring of the CSR Policy, is in compliance with CSR objectives and Policy of the Company.

Global Macroeconomic Scenario

The year 2016-17 saw an increase in financial stability concerns for Emerging Market Economies (EMEs) though such concerns eased for advanced economies. The performance of most EMEs was marked by severe domestic imbalances emanating from economic slowdown and downturn in credit growth coupled with rising stress in corporate and financial sectors making them vulnerable to the changing external financing conditions. In the group of EMEs, India stood out in terms of higher economic growth despite two consecutive years of deficient monsoon. The banking sector, however, continued to be under stress primarily on account of the burden of Non-Performing Assets (NPAs) which increased sharply during the year.

After a lackluster outturn in 2015-16, economic activity is projected to pick up pace in 2017 and 2018, especially in emerging market and developing economies. Stagnant global trade, subdued investment, and heightened policy uncertainty marked another difficult year for the world economy. A moderate recovery is expected for 2017, with receding obstacles to activity in commodity-exporting emerging markets and developing economies. Weak investment is weighing on medium-term prospects across many emerging markets and developing economies. However, there is a wide dispersion of possible outcomes around the projections, given uncertainty surrounding the policy stance of the incoming U.S. administration and its global ramifications. Although fiscal stimulus in major economies, if implemented, may boost global growth above expectations, risks to growth forecasts remain tilted to the downside. Important downside risks stem from heightened policy uncertainty in major economies.

Emerging Economies

The picture for Emerging Market and Developing Economies (EMDEs) remains much more diverse. Growth prospects have marginally worsened for emerging market and developing economies, where financial conditions have generally tightened. Near-term growth prospects were revised up for China, due to expected policy stimulus, but were revised down for a number of other large economies—most notably India, Brazil, and Mexico (EMDEs) that rely heavily on external financing. In addition, lingering uncertainty about the course of U.S. economic policy could have a significantly negative effect on global growth prospects. The growth rate in China was a bit stronger than expected, supported by continued policy stimulus. But activity was weaker than expected in some Latin American countries currently in recession, such as Argentina and Brazil, as well as in Turkey, which faced a sharp contraction in tourism revenues. Activity in Russia was slightly better than expected, in part reflecting firmer oil prices.

Growth forecasts for 2017 were instead revised down in a number of other regions: In India, the growth forecast for the current (2016-17) and next fiscal year were trimmed by one percentage point and 0.4 percentage point, respectively, primarily due to the temporary negative consumption shock induced by cash shortages and payment disruptions associated with the recent currency note withdrawal and exchange initiative. In Latin America, the growth downgrade reflects to an important extent more muted expectations of short-term recovery in Argentina and Brazil following weaker-than-expected growth outturns in the second half of 2016, tighter financial conditions and increased headwinds from U.S.-related uncertainty in Mexico, and continued deterioration in Venezuela. In the Middle East, growth in Saudi Arabia is expected to be weaker than previously forecast for 2017 as oil production is cut back in line with the recent OPEC agreement, while civil strife continues to take a heavy toll on a number of other countries.

Global Price Stability and Inflation

Oil prices have increased in recent weeks, reflecting an agreement among major producers to trim supply. With strong infrastructure and real estate investment in China as well as expectations of fiscal easing in the United States, prices for base metals have also strengthened. Headline inflation rates have recovered in advanced economies in recent months with the bottoming out of commodity prices, but core inflation rates have remained broadly unchanged and generally below inflation targets. Inflation ticked up in China as capacity cuts and higher commodity prices have pushed producer price inflation to positive territory after more than four years of deflation. In other EMDEs, inflation developments have been heterogeneous, reflecting differing exchange rate movements and idiosyncratic factors.

Global Macro-financial Risks

- The global recovery remains fragile amidst weak and uneven growth, a slowdown in world trade and prevailing uncertainties in financial and commodities markets. The unintended side effects of current ultra-easy monetary policies being pursued in many advanced economies - without any clear signs of an exit strategy, are becoming evident.
- Global financial markets continue to face elevated levels of uncertainty notwithstanding the resilience to the outcomes of Brexit referendum and the US election. A negative feedback loop arising from productivity and global trade slowdowns and rising protectionism is adding to the pessimistic outlook on global recovery even as the uptick in US interest rates poses a significant risk to emerging market economies.
- The baseline scenario assumes that global growth will accelerate during 2017 and 2018. Risks to the baseline could emanate from: (a) US fiscal expansion being less than expected or marked by delays; (b) the Federal Reserve's monetary policy response to expansionary fiscal policy being larger than expected, especially in the context of a recent assessment that the US economy is "closing in on full employment"; (c) the now pervasive spectre of protectionism affecting global trade; (d) continued concerns over the Chinese credit cycle; (e) volatile global crude oil and commodity prices; and (f) the implications of all these factors for international financial markets.

- While the balance of risks is viewed as being to the downside, there are also upside risks to near-term growth. Specifically, global activity could accelerate more strongly if policy stimulus turns out to be larger than currently projected in the United States or China. Notable negative risks to activity include a possible shift toward inward-looking policy platforms and protectionism, a sharper than expected tightening in global financial conditions that could interact with balance sheet weaknesses in parts of the euro area and in some emerging market economies, increased geopolitical tensions, and a more severe slowdown in China.

India

India, a South Asian nation, is the seventh-largest country by area, the second-most populous country with over 1.33 billion people, the most populous democracy in the world, and the third largest by Purchasing Power Parity (PPP). The country is classified as a newly industrialized country and one of the G-20 major economies with an average growth rate of approximately 7% over the last two decades. India boasts of an immensely rich cultural heritage including numerous languages, traditions and people. The country holds its uniqueness in its diversity and hence has adapted itself to international changes with poise and comfort. While the economy has welcomed international companies to invest in it with open arms since liberalisation in 1990s, Indians have been prudent and pro-active in adopting global approach and skills.

Indian Economic Scenario

The long-term growth prospectives of the Indian economy are positive due to its young population, corresponding low dependency ratio, healthy savings and investment rates, and increasing integration into the global economy. The Indian economy has the potential to become the one of the two largest economies by mid-century. And the outlook for short-term growth is also good as according to the IMF, the Indian economy is the "bright spot" in the global landscapes expected to regain its momentum, with growth rising to 7.6 percent in FY2018 and strengthening to 7.8 percent in FY2019-20. Various reform initiatives are expected to unlock domestic supply bottlenecks and raise productivity. Infrastructure spending should improve the business climate and attract investment in the near-term. The "Make in India", "Skill Development", "Ease of Doing Business", "GST" among many campaigns will help in India's accelerated economic development, backed by domestic demand and further regulatory reforms. A benefit of 'demonetization' in the medium term may be liquidity expansion in the banking system, helping to lower lending rates and life economic activity.

Economic Overview And Banking Trends

During 2016-17, the performance of most Emerging Market Economies (EMEs) was marked by severe domestic imbalances emanating from economic slowdown and downturn in credit growth coupled with rising stress in corporate and financial sectors. India stood out in terms of higher economic growth although the banking sector was under stress primarily on account of asset quality concerns. The performance of the Indian banking sector remained subdued during 2016-17 amidst rising proportion of banks' delinquent loans, consequent increase in provisioning and continued slowdown in credit growth. However banks' retail portfolios registered double-digit growth during the year.

Banking Trends

India's financial system remains stable, even though the banking sector is facing significant challenges. As global uncertainties and transiting geopolitical risks impact India, continuation of sound domestic policies and structural reforms remain the key for macroeconomic stability. The Banking Stability Indicator (BSI) shows that the risks to the banking sector remained elevated due to continuous deterioration in asset quality, low profitability and liquidity. Overall, India's financial system remains stable although banks, particularly the public sector banks, continue to face significant levels of stress.

Financial Intermediation

- The benchmark 10-year yield continued to tread high in spite of the rate cut and in fact increased marginally after the rate cut to settle at 6.61 per cent as of March 31, 2017.
- The Government increased the limit on securities under market stabilisation scheme from ₹ 30,000 crore (US$ 4.4 billion) to ₹ 6 lakh crore (US$ 88.5 billion).
- Indian markets recorded a modest growth of 1.95 to 3 per cent (Sensex was up by 1.95 per cent while Nifty was higher by 3.0 per cent) for the calendar year 2016 as compared to losses registered in 2015.
- For the first time since the meltdown of 2008, Net Foreign Portfolio Investments (FPI) have turned negative (implying that there was an outflow from the Indian markets to the tune of ₹ 23,079 crore or US$ 3.4 billion), led by increase in US Fed rate by the Federal Reserve leading to outflows from several emerging market economies.

Recognizing that the domestic foreign exchange market witnessed heightened volatility in the aftermath of the US presidential elections, the risk of renewed turbulence in global financial markets on account of global downsides materializing and associated volatility in domestic financial markets remains a clear and present danger to the Indian economy.

Impact of Demonetization on the Bank

- Exponential Increase In Low Cost Deposit
As with the overall Banking system, your bank has received huge amount of deposits and that too in the form of low cost CASA. This low cost deposit is going to automatically improve the NIM. This tendency has led to sharp reduction of cost of deposits in the banking system which will add to the margins and bottom line and help banks reduce interest rates sharply both for accepting deposits and for making advances. The Bank has fared very well during the Demonetization phase and has been able to sharply increase and retain the share of CASA
- Interest Rate Cycle
The interest rate cycle has tilted downward in the banking system despite RBI getting cautious about inflation and inflationary expectations. The banking system is flush with funds and have lesser appetite for further accepting of deposits without too many sound lending avenues at hand, which has forced banks to cut deposits rates sharply down. The reduction in cost of deposits is leading fall in overall interest rates on lending as well which is auguring well for industry and a big boost to private investment. Overall, the interest rate cycle has clearly turned southwards and fall in interest rates is going to help increase advances. The Bank primarily focuses on retail and small and medium enterprises, which is best suited to pick up in advances given the sharp fall in interest rates.
Deposit Rate: Higher Deposits -> Interest Rate Cycle accelerates downward -> reduction in Cost of Deposit.
- Higher Usage Of Debit Cards
One of the biggest advantages of demonetization is going to be the automation of financial transactions.

The Bank is poised to get a great phillip in usage of its debit cards.

- Operative Accounts
Many in-operative and Dormant Accounts have become operative. The Bank has witnessed heavy footfall during the period of demonetization from old and new clients. These inoperative accounts which have now gone operative shall give cross selling opportunity as well.
- Increase in Third Party Income
The Bank has witnessed great increase in customer accretion as well as customer satisfaction due to better handling of cash during demonetization period. The addition of satisfied customers is providing great base to pitch third party products as well which shall be highly profitable going forward.
- Loan Book
Initial reduction on Loan Book shall be recovered with normalization and pick up of economy. The fall interest rates, formalization of economy and pick up in demand and investment activity are going to add to the loan book in a significant way.

All in all, the better management, strong system and structural strengths have helped the Bank to better serve its existing and new clients. The Bank has been success in adding business all round and keeping customer satisfaction high during the tough time of cash crunch caused by demonetization. The betters of such healthy relationships can be seen in in all spheres like CASA accretion, Loan Book build up, third party products. So, the bank and its clients have a win-win situation during and post demonetization which is going to add value going forward as well.

The Outlook for Growth

With the effects of demonetization turning out to be short-lived and modest relative to some doomsday expectations, the outlook for 2017-18 has been brightened considerably by a number of factors. First, with the accelerated pace of remonetization, discretionary consumer spending held back by demonetization is expected to have picked up from Q4:2016-17 and will gather momentum over several quarters ahead. The recovery will also likely be aided by the reduction in banks' lending rates due to large inflows of Current and Savings Accounts (CASA) deposits, although the fuller transmission impact might be impeded by stressed balance sheets of banks and the tepid demand for bank credit.

Second, various proposals in the Union Budget 2017-18 are expected to be growth stimulating: stepping up of capital expenditure; boosting the rural economy and affordable housing; the planned roll-out of the GST; and steps to attract higher foreign direct investment (FDI) through initiatives like abolishing the Foreign Investment Promotion Board (FIPB).

Third, global trade and output are expected to expand at a stronger pace in 2017 and 2018 than in recent years, easing the external demand constraint on domestic growth prospects. However, the recent increase in the global commodity prices, if sustained, could have a negative impact on our net commodity importing domestic economy. Finally, the pace of economic activity would critically hinge upon the outturn of the south-west monsoon, especially in view of the rising probability being assigned to an elniño event in July-August, 2017.

To sum up, economic activity should recover in 2017-18 on the back of the fast pace of remonetization and the government's focus on capital expenditure, rural economy and housing. The global economic environment may improve modestly, albeit amidst several uncertainties. Headline inflation is projected to increase during 2017-18, calling for close vigilance and readiness for an appropriate monetary policy response, if warranted.

Inclusive Growth

Equity, access, and inclusion are the greatest needs for creating sustainable development. Financial inclusion is about

- (a) the broadening of financial services to those people and enterprises who do not have access to financial services sector;
- (b) the deepening of financial services for those who have minimal financial services; and
- (c) greater financial literacy and consumer protection so that those who are offered financial products can make appropriate choices.

The imperative for financial inclusion is both a moral one as well as one based on economic efficiency. Everyone must be given access to the tools and resources to better themselves, which would increase output, growth, and economic prosperity. Providing universal access to banking services and improving the forms of credit delivery, especially for the weaker sections of the population is the need of the hour to create sustainable development. Perhaps the most important is the economic condition of the excluded. World over, the poor, the small, and the remote are excluded. It is not just because the financial system is underdeveloped, but because they are hard to service profitably.

Local financial institutions, with local control and staffed by knowledgeable local people, could be more effective at providing financial services to the excluded. To provide an alternative institutional avenue for these categories of institutions to fulfill their mission, the RBI has created a new institution called the Small Finance Bank, where "small" refers to the kind of customer the bank deals with, not its size. With 75% of the loans mandated to be below 25 lakhs, the small finance bank is intended to provide services to the excluded. Thus far, the licenses have been largely given to micro-finance institutions and one local area bank, but there is no reason why these cannot be given to regional rural banks and co-operatives in the future. The hope is that these institutions will maintain a low cost structure, augmented by technology, to provide a menu of financial services to the excluded.

The country has come a long way in the process of financial inclusion, but still has a way to go. We are steadily moving from mandates, subsidies, and reliance on the public sector banks for inclusion to creating enabling frameworks that make it attractive for all financial institutions to target the excluded, even while the interests of the excluded are protected through education, competition and regulation. I am confident that in the foreseeable future, we will bring formal financial services to every Indian who wants them. Financial inclusion will be an important element in ensuring access and equity, necessary building blocks for the sustainable growth of our country. Former RBI Governor Rajan's comments: Small Finance Banks can revolutionize small lending, a segment large banks seldom cater to. Mr. Rajan said small finance banks would be able to extend loans to small businesses, typically not served by large banks. "My sense is that small finance banks will create a revolution in the banking sphere. A revolution will create easier access to finance to all small entities looking for finance. For example, a small finance bank is mandated to give 50 per cent of its loans to small firms."

FUTURE PLANS Geographical Outreach

The Bank ended year 2016-17 with 73 branches spread over the state of Punjab and Union Territory of Chandigarh. The Bank plans to grow exponentially and has laid a plan to cover all states of Northern part of the country by March 2020.

Other measures like use of LEDs, power saver air conditioning equipment's etc are being installed for conserving the energy. There is no capital investment on energy conservation equipment other than specified above.

Annexure A To The Independent Auditor's Report Of Even Date On The Financial Statements Of CAPITAL SMALL FINANCE BANK LIMITED (previously Known As CAPITAL LOCAL AREA BANK LIMITED)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013

1. We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of CAPITAL SMALL FINANCE BANK LIMITED (Previously known as CAPITAL LOCAL AREA Bank LIMITED (here in referred to as 'the Bank') as at 31 March 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Bank for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

2. The Bank's Board of Directors is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Bank considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ("the Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("the ICAI").] These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Bank's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act').

Auditor's Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Bank's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ('the Guidance Note') and the Standards on Auditing ('the Standards'), issued by the ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

- 4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.
- 5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Bank's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

- 6. A bank's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A bank's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that
 - (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the bank;
 - (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the bank are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the bank; and

- (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the bank's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

7. Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

8. In our opinion, the Bank has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Bank considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.
